

Updates

Project update July 2016

The Columbia team reached out to interested colleagues in the art/art library community to participate in the Artframe project. The group now includes members of the Library of Congress Prints and Photographs Division, the ARLIS/NA Cataloging Advisory Committee, and Penny Baker from the Sterling and Francine Clark Art Institute. After holding its first call on July 6, 2016 the group will begin work on collecting use cases.